

Health Policy in the New Administration: A Geiger Gibson Webinar Series

The health policy world will look quite different under the next President. Are you ready? Explore the issues with the Geiger Gibson Program in Community Health Policy in a special webinar series starting January 21st, 2021, right after the next President is sworn in.

This four-part series will cover the federal health policy issues key to community health centers, health center networks, and state and regional primary care associations:

- The Biden administration's blueprint for action - what does it mean for health centers and their communities?
- Insuring all low-income people - where is the administration headed?
- How will reducing health disparities guide administration policymaking?
- Health policy and immigrant health
